STIPULATED ORDER STAYING PROCEEDINGS

WHEREAS, this case involves claims arising out of the arrest and prosecution of Plaintiff and her husband, Steve Fisher (“husband”), which resulted in all criminal charges being quashed. Husband’s criminal case (only) is currently pending on appeal in the Michigan Court of Appeals.

The Defendants wish to conduct a discovery deposition of husband, who due to his criminal appeal, plans to assert his Fifth Amendment right not to testify to the matters relevant to this case. As a result, the parties will be prejudiced if forced to continue without husband’s testimony at this time. Accordingly, the parties agree that it is in the best interests of the parties, and the efficient administration of justice, to place this litigation on “stay” pending the final disposition of husband’s relevant appeals.

ACCORDINGLY:

IT IS ORDERED THAT without imposing any costs on any party, this action and any applicable statutes of limitation as to Plaintiff’s claims are stayed until 90 days after final resolution of all criminal proceedings related to the prosecution of husband or until the further order of this Court. Any party to this action may file notice to the other parties and this Court that all applicable appeals have been exhausted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
